

VOTERS.

1916, ch. 200. sec. 8.

761. All male citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and over who shall have actually resided within the limits of said town not less than 365 days next preceding any regular election for Councilmen, who have never been convicted of any infamous crime, shall be qualified voters of said town and as such shall be entitled to register as hereinafter provided and after such registration to vote at any election held in said town under the provisions of this Act, or under the provisions of any other Act requiring an election to be held in said town for any town purposes whatsoever, until they shall be thereafter disqualified by loss of citizenship, actual removal from said town or conviction for an infamous crime, and shall for such disqualification be stricken from the registration books hereinafter provided for.

ELECTIONS.

1916, ch. 200, sec. 9.

762. The qualified voters of said town shall on the first Monday in May, 1917, and every two years thereafter, at such place in said town as the Election Supervisors hereinafter provided for, shall designate, vote for one person to serve as Mayor of said town for the term of two years from the second Monday in May of the year of his election, and until the qualification of his successor.

And on the first Monday in May, 1918, and every two years thereafter, at the same place the qualified voters residing in the second ward shall vote for one person resident in said ward to be Councilman to serve for two years from the second Monday in May, next after his election and until the qualification of his successor.

And on the first Monday in May, 1918, and every two years thereafter, at the same place, the qualified voters residing in the third ward shall vote for one person resident in said ward to be Councilman to serve for two years from the second Monday in May next after his election, and until the qualification of his successor.

And on the first Monday in May, 1917, and every two years thereafter, at such place in said town as said Election Supervisors shall designate, the qualified voters residing in the first ward shall vote for one person resident in said ward to be Councilman to serve for two years from the second Monday in May next after his election, and until the qualification of his successor.

And on the first Monday in May, 1917, and every two years thereafter, at the same place, the qualified voters residing in the fourth ward shall vote for one person resident in said ward to be Councilman to serve for two years from the second Monday in May next after his election, and until the qualification of his successor.

If it shall appear from the election returns that any two or more persons voted for for Mayor or for Councilman from any of the four wards, have
