

received the same number of votes so that there has been a failure to elect, then the Mayor or Councilman at such time filling the place for which there has been no election, shall continue to perform the duties thereof pending a new election, and it shall be the duty of the Mayor and Common Council to order a new election for such officer or officers by directing the Supervisors of Election hereinafter provided for to hold such election, whereupon it shall be the duty of said Supervisors of Election to fix a date therefor not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of their receipt of such order, and they shall give ten days' notice thereof in the same manner as they are required to give notice of the regular election.

In case of a vacancy occurring in the office of Mayor, the members of the Council shall elect a duly qualified person to fill such vacancy at their next regular meeting after the occurrence of such vacancy, and in case they shall fail to so elect they shall at once call a new election in the same manner and under the same conditions as that to be called in case of a failure to elect at the regular election.

In case of a vacancy in the office of Councilman of any ward, the Mayor with the advice and consent of the remaining members of the said Council shall appoint a qualified person to serve as Councilman from said ward until the next general election for Councilmen, at which election a Councilman shall be voted for by the voters of said ward to fill out the remainder of the unexpired term in case such term shall not regularly expire at such time.

1916, ch. 200, sec. 10.

763. On or before the first day of April in each and every year, the Mayor and Common Council shall appoint two qualified voters of said town not holding any other office thereunder as Supervisors of Election, who shall also act as Registration Officials and Judges of Election at any election held during the year succeeding their appointment. In case of a vacancy occurring in said year in the office of Supervisors of Election, the Mayor and the Common Council shall appoint a qualified person to fill said vacancy occurring in said office. The Supervisors of Election shall receive Five Dollars each for each and every day they may be required to serve as Judges of Election or as Registration Officials.

1916, ch. 200, sec. 11.

764. The said Supervisors of Election shall appoint by at least one advertisement in a weekly newspaper published in the town of Mount Rainier, or in case there be no such paper in a weekly newspaper circulating in said town, two days for registration in each and every year, not less than twenty days nor more than thirty days before the first Monday in May in such year, on which days the said Supervisors of Election shall sit as Registration Officials at some easily accessible place in said town to be named in said advertisement from the hours of 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. At least one day shall intervene between the two registration days herein provided for.
