

any limits of said town, as fixed by Section 121 of this Article, to which this Act is an amendment, shall constitute an assessment district for the purpose of keeping the necessary records of assessment and collection of all taxes, as a sub-district of Election Precinct No. 2 of said county. All taxes shall be assessed, extended and collected as to person and property in accordance with existing law; but the record of assessment and taxes to be collected and the alphabetical list of persons required by law to be kept shall, as to person and property in said town, be entered on the proper books of the county compactly together, precisely as though said town constituted an assessment district for all purposes under existing law. Upon this record, so kept in form, shall be collected all taxes in said town, so that easy ascertainment may always be made by the County Treasurer of taxes collected and in his hands, to which the said town shall be entitled. As soon as practicable, after the taking effect of this Act, the Commissioners of Arundel-on-the-Bay shall furnish the County Commissioners of said county an alphabetical list of all persons in said town or owning property therein, against whom taxes of any kind may be assessed; and of all property owned or held by each, and the assessment of the same as it shall then stand, which list shall be the basis of the record provided hereby, but which may be revised, added to or corrected, by said County Commissioners exactly as under existing law.

152. In elections for Commissioners of said town it shall be necessary only to give public notice by posting written or printed notices in three of the most public places in said town for three successive weeks next prior to said election.

AUCTIONS.

153. On and after June 1, 1929, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to conduct an auction sale or sales within Anne Arundel County, without first having obtained a license therefor from the clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, and having paid said clerk a license fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00), which shall cover the period of one year from the date of issuing said license, or any part of said year. All such licenses shall be renewable on or before the first day of June next ensuing, and the clerk of the court of said county shall keep a record of all such licenses, showing at all times the duly qualified auctioneers authorized to do business in said county. Any person violating this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Anne Arundel County, shall pay a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for the first offense, and a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) for each succeeding offense.
