

the Mayor and Common Council. Upon complaint made to any said Justice of the Peace of the violation of any such ordinance or regulation, said Justice shall issue process in the name of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier against the party offending, and shall determine the matter in the same manner as in any case arising under the laws of this State, and shall receive the same fees therefor. In default of the payment of any fine or penalty imposed by such Justice of the Peace for the violation of any such ordinance or regulation, the Justice of the Peace determining such case may commit the party fined in accordance with the provisions of Section 768, and in all such proceedings the town officers duly appointed shall have the same power, proceed in the same manner and receive the same fees as constables now receive in similar cases in which the State of Maryland is a party. All warrants sworn out in the name of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier shall be amendable at any time before judgment, and any case brought before any Justice of the Peace for the violation of any ordinance or regulation of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier, may be removed by any party thereto to another Justice of the Peace of Prince George's County, either in the same or an adjoining election district in said County, upon the filing of a written motion and affidavit that the party making the motion believes he cannot have a fair trial before said Justice of the Peace. In case said motion is made by the Mayor and Common Council the affidavit shall be made by the Mayor. In case there is no Justice of the Peace resident in said town, cases brought under the provisions of this act, may be brought before some other Justice resident in the election district of Prince George's County in which said town is located, and the Mayor and Common Council may provide for the expenses so incurred. All fines collected for the violation of ordinances or regulations of the Mayor and Common Council shall be turned over to them by the Justice of the Peace before whom the cases shall be tried at least once a month. In all cases for the violation of an ordinance or regulation of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier, either party shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the Justice of the Peace to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County upon the giving of such bond, or the entering into such recognizance as the Justice may require, and such cases shall be heard in said Court as are other criminal appeals.

PUBLIC HIGHWAYS.

1916, ch. 200, sec. 17.

771. All streets, avenues, roads and alleys within the corporate limits of the town of Mount Rainier, as herein set forth, which shall have been dedicated to the use of the public prior to the passage of this Act, are hereby declared to be public highways under the supervision and control of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier.
