Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Mayor and Common Council from making any agreements or contracts for any special purposes to be payable out of the funds to be thereafter derived from special sources for such special purposes.

RECALL OF ELECTIVE OFFICERS.

1916, ch. 200, sec. 21.

778. The holder of any elective office created herein may be removed at any time by the registered voters of said town qualified to vote for his successor by the use of the following procedure: A petition signed by not less than 50 per cent. of the voters entitled to vote for a successor to the officer sought to be removed, setting forth that the officer in question has failed to perform the duties of his office in a manner desired by the petitioners, and specifying the instances of such failure, and demanding an election for the purpose of selecting a successor, shall be filed with the Mayor and Common Council at a regular stated meeting.

The Mayor and Common Council immediately upon the receipt of such petition shall pass upon the legal sufficiency thereof, and for the purpose of determining whether the requisite number of duly qualified voters have signed the same, they shall refer said petition to the Supervisors of Election who shall report thereon in writing.

If the petition shall be found to be legally sufficient, the Mayor and Common Council shall immediately order an election for the purpose of electing a successor to said officer. The Supervisors of Election shall thereupon proceed to fix a date for said election, and shall give at least ten days' notice thereof in the same manner as they are required to give notice of regular elections.

The Supervisors of Election shall also sit on the 10th day next preceding and exclusive of the date of such election to receive nominations for the office to be filled at such election, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the officer whose removal is sought from becoming a candidate to be voted for at such election. All nominations shall be in the form required by Section 765 hereof, and all of the provisions hereof relating to nominations and elections shall be applicable to said election, unless they shall clearly appear otherwise.

The officer elected at such election shall hold office only until the term of his predecessor shall have expired.

PROHIBITION.

1916, ch. 200, sec. 22.

779. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, except licensed pharmacists or physicians in the course of their practice, to manufacture or sell in any manner any malt or spirituous or intoxicating liquors of any kind or description within the corporate limits of Mount Rainier as hereinbefore set forth, and any person, firm or corporation
