

1914, ch. 454. 1922, ch. 411.

842. The judges of the Orphans' Court of Prince George's County shall each receive a per diem salary of twelve dollars ($12.00) to be paid by the County Commissioners of said county in quarterly payments; and the first payment on account of such salary shall be made on the first Tuesday in the month of July, 1923, and thereafter on the first Tuesday in the months of October, January, April and July in each year; and the County Commissioners of said county at the time for their annual levy for the year 1923, and annually thereafter, shall levy upon the assessable property of the said county a sum sufficient to pay the salaries of the judges of the Orphans' Court as above provided.

1922, ch. 411, sec. 2.

843. Said judges of said Orphans' Court shall hold sessions of said court on the first, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, except when such days are legal holidays, and on such other days as the business of the court may require their presence.

1922, ch. 411, sec. 3.

844. Any Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed solely to the extent that said Acts or parts of Acts affect the salaries of judges of the Orphans' Court and time of meeting of said court in Prince George's County.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 256. 1912 Code, sec. 497. 1927, ch. 174.

845. The messenger of the Orphans' Court for said County shall receive three dollars per diem for each day of his attendance at the sessions of said Court.

846. Vacant.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 277. 1912 Code, sec. 498.

847. The register of wills in said county shall be entitled to an annual allowance from the county commissioners sufficient to supply his office with fuel.

OUT-PENSIONERS.

1890, ch. 163. 1912 Code, sec. 499.

848. The county commissioners shall have full power to allow pensions to all persons, citizens of said county and residents thereof, who, in the judgment of said commissioners may be entitled thereto; provided that no pension shall be allowed by order of the board except upon written application and a verified statement of all facts, on which said order is asked being first filed with the clerk of the board.