

to all property, real, personal or mixed, in any way used with the road system of Prince George's County is hereby vested in the County Commissioners, and it shall require no conveyance or action by any other agents of the county now in existence, to vest such title in the Board of County Commissioners. All proceedings at law or in equity now pending against said Board on account of roads or bridges shall be defended by the said Board of County Commissioners. All assets (including choses in action), and all liabilities existing in connection with the roads and bridges of Prince George's County shall be assumed by the Board of County Commissioners from the date of the passage of this Act; and all further proceedings at law or in equity relating to the roads or bridges, and the road fund of Prince George's County, shall be by or against the said Board of County Commissioners as the representatives of the county for such purposes.

892. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall in the annual levy next succeeding the passage of this Act, and in each annual levy thereafter, levy upon the assessable property basis of Prince George's County not more than thirty cents per $100.00 of such assessable basis for the use of the roads and bridges of said county. The County Treasurer of said county is hereby directed to report on the first of each month, beginning June 1st, of each year, to the said County Commissioners, the amount of county taxes collected by him for the preceding month, and on the Tuesday next succeeding the day of such report, the said County Commissioners are hereby directed to draw their warrant on the County Treasurer for the use of the road fund, for at least one-half of the amount so reported as collected by the Treasurer each month until the whole amount of money levied for road and bridge uses in each year shall have been paid into the road fund.

Should the levy of 1922 be made before the passage of this Act, then the said County Commissioners, by their warrant on the County Treasurer shall draw all sums levied for the use of the roads and bridges for said county by such levy no matter in whose name the said levy for such purposes may have been made.

The Board of County Commissioners is hereby directed to pay annually to the proper authorities of incorporated towns, three-fourths of such part of such road and bridge taxes, as may be realized each year from the property within the limits of the respective towns. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the County Commissioners from levying, in addition to the road and bridge fund herein provided for, or from appropriating any sum or sums of money necessary for the building of roads under any State-aid Road Law, or lateral road scheme now or hereafter in force in this State, but on the contrary, the said County Commissioners shall each year ascertain from the State Roads Commission the yearly amount assigned out of the road funds for that year to Prince George's County from the State, under any law providing money for the building
