

visor for immorality, misconduct in office, insubordination, incompetency, or wilful neglect of duty, upon making known to him, in writing, the charges against him and upon giving him an opportunity of being heard in person or by counsel in his own defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. In case of vacancy due to any cause the said Board of Education shall have authority to fill such vacancy until the expiration of the term.

1924, ch. 588, sec. 2.

900. The Supervisor of school property, under the instructions of the said Board of Education and under the direction of the County Superintendent of Schools, shall devote his whole time to the supervision of the construction, maintenance and operation of all school buildings, and of the transportation of pupils at public expense, in accordance with the provisions of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Public Education," as enacted by Chapter 506 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1916, and subsequent amendments thereof.

1924, ch. 588, sec. 3.

901. The Supervisor of school property under the direction of the County Superintendent of Schools shall have charge of the sanitary conditions of all buildings and grounds, and shall frequently make inspection of all school property, and shall take such necessary action to maintain and keep the most sanitary and efficient condition possible about any and all of said school property. That it shall be the duty of said Supervisor to inspect frequently the heating, ventilating and lighting conditions in schools and other buildings and to require in all things the best possible accommodations for the comfort, convenience and health of the teachers and children.

1924, ch. 588, sec. 4.

902. The Supervisor of school property shall frequently inspect the privies, cesspools, sinks, and plumbing on the school properties and cause same to be operated and maintained in a sanitary manner. That said Supervisor shall from time to time cause an inspection of the water supply of each and every school and have the same analyzed to insure clean, healthy drinking water at said schools.

1924, ch. 588, sec. 5.

903. The Supervisor of school property shall keep a record of all school property in said county and enter the location, character, size and condition of said school property in a book to be kept for that purpose, and he shall personally inspect and record and report from time to time the condition of same to the said Board of Education with his recommendations as to the needs of said property or the disposition of same, and in all matters and things in relation thereto, it shall be the duty of said Supervisor to improve and maintain the school property of the county, so that it may be preserved and utilized for the purpose intended, and not be