

The said Commission shall at the same time certify to the Board of Supervisors of Elections for said County that a vote is desired on the question. They shall also submit to said Board the proposition, to be printed on the ballot, and file with them maps and descriptions of the district or area. It shall thereupon be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to approve the date for said election and issue a call for the same by publication, at least once a week for a period of three consecutive weeks in all County newspapers published within the County; provided, however, that if the date fixed for said special election is not that of the next County, State or general election, said date shall be one at least six months in advance of the date on which any one of the above elections is to be held.

The voting lists, on the question of an issue of sewerage and drainage bonds in any district or area, shall be composed of:

(a) The qualified voters from the last general registers of election of those entitled to vote at the last County, State or general election, residing in or paying taxes on property within the district or area;

(b) Resident taxpayers, not qualified voters therein;

(c) Non-resident taxpayers;

(d) Provided, however, that a person paying a dog tax shall not be construed a taxpayer for the purposes of this Act.

The Board of Election Supervisors shall prepare a list of those qualified to vote on the question, whose names are found on the general register. The said Commission shall have prepared from the tax books of the County, under the direction of the County Clerk, separate lists of the resident and non-resident taxpayers of the district or area. These shall be handed to the Board of Supervisors, who shall cause to be stricken off from the taxpayers' lists any name found on the list prepared from the election registers.

The said Commission shall have forwarded to each resident taxpayer not on the list of qualified voters prepared by the Supervisors of Elections and to each non-resident taxpayer at the last known addresses a copy of the various official publications on the matter, and a copy of the order, fixing the time and place of the election, together with a blank ballot, across the face of which has been printed or written the words "Resident Taxpayers' Ballot" and "Non-resident Taxpayer's Ballot," respectively. If such taxpayer desires to vote on the question, the proper mark shall be made thereon, in the presence of a notary, whose acknowledgment shall be endorsed, and whose seal affixed to said ballot, the same then being forwarded in a sealed registered package to the said Commission, who shall deliver it unopened to the Clerk of the Election, before the close of the polls, and the said ballot shall be counted as a yea or nay vote on the question of the bond issue.

The Board of Election Supervisors shall designate one or more polling places within the district or area and shall hold an election, appointing judges and clerks for each polling place, who shall be the same in number and receive the same compensation as that received in a County, State or general election, provided, however, that they may in case of a separate
