

dollars for each night he shall serve as such guard, to be certified by the Sheriff, and such amount shall be levied by the County Commissioners of Prince George's County for the use of the said guard at their regular term for levying taxes for each year if any guard shall have been appointed by the Sheriff and serve as aforesaid.

1904, ch. 61, sec. 298. 1912 Code, sec. 535.

940. Any guard so appointed shall hold his appointment at the will and pleasure of the sheriff.

1906, ch. 13, sec. 298A. 1912 Code, sec. 536.

941. No person in Prince George's county, who has been the sheriff thereof at the term next preceding his successor, shall be eligible for appointment as deputy sheriff under the sheriff who shall next succeed him; and if appointed, shall not be permitted to qualify as such deputy sheriff, it being the intent of this act that no person charged with the collection and disbursement of funds arising from judgments rendered by the Circuit Court for Prince George's County or any other Court in this State shall be permitted by deputization to attend to and execute such business except in the performance of duties imposed on him as former sheriff under the provisions of law in relation to such office as specified in Article 87 of the Code of Public General Laws.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 260. 1912 Code, sec. 537.

942. It shall not be necessary for sheriffs or other officers in said county, to advertise in newspapers, sales of lands and tenements as required by the Code of Public General Laws.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

1902, ch. 216, sec. 299. 1912 Code, sec. 538.

943. The State's Attorney of Prince George's County, Maryland, shall receive for the year nineteen hundred and two and for each year thereafter, a salary of fifteen hundred dollars to be annually levied and paid by the county commissioners of said county.

SWINE.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 302. 1912 Code, sec. 539.

944. No swine belonging to the inhabitants of the town of Queen Anne, or the inhabitants of Prince George's county, living within a quarter of a mile of said town shall be suffered to go at large in said town or within one-quarter of a mile thereof; and any swine so found going at large may be killed or impounded by any person; if impounded, the person impounding shall immediately give notice by advertisements set up at the most public places in said town, describing the swine so impounded and if the owner shall not within five days after such notice prove his property and make compensation for the injury, if any, sustained by the inhabitants