1929, ch. 169, sec. 3.

949. (A) Every resident of said town having the qualifications of a voter under the laws of this State, who has resided in said town for three months immediately preceding the election at which such person proposes to vote, and who is duly registered as a voter in the said town under the provisions of the next succeeding section shall be entitled to vote in municipal elections in the said town, and no person shall vote in any such municipal election who does not possess the qualifications enumerated in this section; provided, however, that this section and the next succeeding section shall not apply to special elections held under the provisions of Section 960(G) of this Charter. The residents of said town having the qualifications enumerated in this section shall on the first Monday in May next elect three persons not less than twenty-five years of age as Councilmen, who, together with the three Councilmen elected at the last general election, shall constitute the Council, all of whom shall have resided in the said town at least one year previous to their election and be legal voters and property owners therein. Thereafter on the first Monday of each succeeding May, beginning with the first Monday in May, 1930, three persons possessing the qualifications herein enumerated shall be elected as Councilmen; and every two years on the first Monday in May in such years, beginning with the first Monday in May in the year 1930 one person at least thirty years of age, possessing the qualifications herein enumerated shall be elected as Mayor of the said town. The Mayor and the Councilmen shall serve for two years, beginning with the first Monday in June ensuing after their election.

(B) Nominations for Mayor and Councilmen shall be made at a meeting of citizens called by the Town Clerk at the direction of the Council. Such meeting shall be held at a convenient place within the town to be designated by the Council and notice thereof shall be given through a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation within the town or by handbills generally distributed and posted throughout the town and the said meeting shall be held on the Monday evening prior to the election. The Town Clerk shall preside at said meeting; a Secretary shall be chosen who is a legal voter in the town and he shall keep a record of the proceedings of said meeting and file the same in the office of the Town Clerk.
