

CAMPMEETINGS.

1914, ch. 698. 1914 Code, sec. 299.

177. It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or religious bodies of whatsoever sect or denominations, to hold campmeetings or bushmeetings in Anne Arundel County for a longer period than one day, without first obtaining from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County a license so to do, which license shall cost the sum of ten dollars.

No campmeeting or bushmeeting shall last for a longer period than fifteen days, and the license for the same shall be drawn as to show the date upon which said meeting is to begin, and the date of the termination thereof, and the persons, corporations or religious body or sect holding said license, shall have the right to hold said meetings for the period named in said license, subject, however, to be revoked for lawlessness or disorder, when such a charge is brought and sustained before some justice of the peace for said county.

Any violation of this Act shall be punished with a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than fifty dollars.

CIRCUIT COURT.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 107. 1890, ch. 57. 1914 Code, sec. 142.

178. There shall be two regular common law terms of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, at the City of Annapolis, commencing, respectively, on the third Monday in April and the third Monday in October, in each year.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 108. 1914 Code, sec. 143.

179. The Judges of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, in their discretion, may appoint intermediate terms between the common-law terms, for the transaction of equity business, and any other business not requiring a jury, to which process shall be returnable.

1900, ch. 481. 1914 Code, sec. 144.

180. Upon the organization of each and every grand jury, as now provided for by law, and at the request of said grand jury, as now provided for by law, and at the request of said grand jury, signified in writing to the Judge or Judges of the Circuit Court, the said judge or judges are authorized and empowered to appoint a clerk, who shall be a competent stenographer, who shall be subject to such rules and orders as shall be made and passed by the Circuit Court, and said clerk, if so directed and required so to do, and not otherwise, shall have authority to be present at all sessions of said grand jury, and shall take and transcribe the testimony given before such grand jury, and whenever desired by the State's Attorney shall attend upon and take and transcribe the testimony given at coroner's inquest, and all testimony so taken and transcribed
