

the first day of May, in the year 1906; this section shall apply to Prince George's county only.

This section is also codified as sec. 15 of Art. 57 of Annotated Code.

TOBACCO.

1918, ch. 194, sec. 1.

979. Any person or persons wishing to engage in the business of buying and selling leaf tobacco (meaning stripped tobacco and tied in small bundles) in Anne Arundel or the adjoining counties, before doing so shall first obtain a license from the Clerk of the Court for the county in which he or they reside, said license to cost twenty-five dollars, and fifty cents Clerk's fee. Failure to obtain said license before engaging in said business, the person or persons so engaged shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), or be imprisoned in jail for not less than three (3) months, nor more than six (6) months.

1918, ch. 194, sec. 2.

980. Any landlord wishing to sell any leaf tobacco in Anne Arundel or the adjoining counties raised or grown upon his or her farm by a tenant who works said farm for a share in crops grown, shall before doing so obtain a written permission from the tenant, and likewise, any tenant wishing to sell any leaf tobacco grown and raised as aforesaid, shall before doing so obtain a written permission from the landlord or his or her agent; in either case the permission shall accompany the tobacco to be sold and be presented to the buyer, who shall sign his name on the back of said permission and set forth the date received. The buyer shall also furnish two statements; one to the landlord and one to the tenant, setting forth in both statements the kind of tobacco, the weight, the price paid and date received. The permission endorsed as aforesaid shall be returned to the giver. Any buyer or receiver of tobacco as aforesaid failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the county in which he resides, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00), nor more than ($100.00) one hundred dollars, or be confined in the county jail for not less than three (3) months, nor more than six (6) months.

1918, ch. 194, sec. 3.

981. Any person or persons not a bona fide farmer or licensed buyer and seller of tobacco, wishing to sell any leaf tobacco in Anne Arundel or the adjoining counties, grown or raised by him or her on his or her lot of ground not a farm, shall before doing so appear in person before a justice of the peace of the county in which he or she resides and obtain a permission, which shall be issued to him free to sell or dispose of said tobacco. The permission issued shall set forth the kind of tobacco, the
