

weight (if known), the name of the party applying for the same and date issued. Said permit shall accompany said tobacco to the buyer, who shall write his name and date when presented on the back of said permission, and also the weight and kind of tobacco received by him, and return said permission to the issuing justice of the peace to be kept by him for one year. Any person or persons as aforesaid, failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be on conviction before any justice of the peace of the county subjected to the fine and penalties as set forth in Section 980.

982. Any person or persons buying any leaf tobacco in Anne Arundel or the adjoining counties, contrary to the provisions set forth in the different sections of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before the court of the county in which tobacco is bought, shall be subject to the fines and penalties set forth in Section 979.

983. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed so as to prevent any bona fide farmer from selling his tobacco raised and grown by him or her upon his or her farm in any manner, nor shall it prevent any person or persons from selling or buying crops or parts of unstripped crops of tobacco hanging in barns nor from packing, shipping and selling tobacco in hogsheads, as has been the custom.

TRESPASS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 306. 1912 Code, sec. 589.

984. If any person residing out of the State shall commit any trespass whatever upon the lands within Prince George's county with dog or gun, and shall not immediately leave said premises upon notice from the owner or occupant thereof, such person shall upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars, in the discretion of the justice, and in default of payment may be committed to the county jail until the payment of fine and costs; and the said justice may also, in his discretion, hold the offender to bail for his appearance before the next Circuit Court for said county, and upon presentment and conviction before said Court, the offender may be confined in the county jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days, in the discretion of the Court.

1890, ch. 306, sec. 306A. 1912 Code, sec. 590.

985. If any person shall wilfully, wantonly, recklessly or maliciously set fire to any stubble, grass, leaves or other combustible material whereby any fencing, crops, wood, timber, outhouses, dwellings or other property shall be injured or destroyed, such person shall (in addition to his civil liability for such damages) be also deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Court of competent jurisdiction shall
