UPPER MARLBORO.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 307. 1912 Code, sec. 591.

986. The citizens of the town of Upper Marlboro, in Prince George's county, are created a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Upper Marlboro," and by that name may have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

1902, ch. 123, sec. 308. 1912 Code, sec. 592.

987. The corporate limits of the town of Upper Marlboro shall be as follows: Commencing at the mouth of the Federal Spring branch at its confluence with the Western Branch and running down with the meanders of the Western Branch on the south side thereof, and exclusive of said branch, to the stream beyond James B. Belt's meadow; then up and with said stream to the small bridge culvert on the road from Upper Marlboro to Rosaryville, back of the former residence of A. T. Brook; then in an air or direct line across the land of Fredrick Sasser to the Federal Spring branch at a point which will throw into the corporation all the land formerly purchased by Thomas E. Williams and C. C. Magruder, Jr., of the trustees of D. Benedict J. Gardner; then down and with the meanders of said Federal Spring branch on the south side thereof, and exclusive of said branch to its mouth, the beginning point aforesaid.

1902, ch. 123, sec. 309. 1912 Code, sec. 593.

988. The Commissioners of Upper Marlboro shall be three in number and shall be elected on the first Monday in January, 1904, and on the first Monday in January in every second year thereafter; and until the first Monday in January, 1904, Fredrick Sasser, John H. Traband and Solomon M. Sweeney, shall be and are hereby constituted commissioners of the said town of Upper Marlboro; that any two of said commissioners elected as aforesaid shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The said commissioners and all the officers of the said corporation before entering upon the duties of their office, shall take an oath, before a justice of the peace within the limits of said corporation, that they will diligently and faithfully to the best of their judgment and ability, discharge the duties of their office without favor, partiality or prejudice, and shall file the certificate of the officers before whom the same is taken among the records of the corporation; and said commissioners shall meet not more than one week after their election, and shall select one of their number president, who shall preside at their meetings and preserve order; they shall also select one of their number as treasurer of said corporation to serve for two years and until his successor shall qualify, whose duty it shall be to keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the corporation in a well bound book, to be
