

of the buildings, if any, upon the land conveyed by said deed, and the price paid for the property.*

1927, ch. 12, sec. 1.

202. No deed conveying real estate or chattels real, located in Anne Arundel County, shall be admitted to record among the land records of Anne Arundel County until the property conveyed and assigned has been transferred on the assessment books in the office of the County Commissioners of said county to the grantee or assignee named in such deed.

1927, ch. 12, sec. 2.

203. Upon the transfer of any such property on said assessment books, the Clerk of the County Commissioners shall endorse the fact of such transfer on the deed, which shall be sufficient to authorize the receipt of such deed for record by the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

1927, ch. 12, sec. 3.

204. Such property shall not be transferred on the assessment books in the office of said County Commissioners unless and until all public taxes, assessments and charges due on said property for the current year and all prior years shall have been paid to the Treasurer of the County and Collector of State and County Taxes for said county.

1927, ch. 12, sec. 4.

205. No deed conveying real estate or chattels real located in Anne Arundel County shall be admitted to record among the land records of Anne Arundel County until the grantee has given his full name and address and true consideration to the Clerk of the County Commissioners of said county.

CORONERS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 111. 1914 Code, sec. 152. 1916, ch. 580.

206. The coroner or justice of the peace, in the account of expenses rendered to the County Commissioners for holding any inquest, shall include such sum for the physician as the said coroner or justice and jurors shall deem just, not less than five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, which sum, together with the other expenses of the inquest, shall be paid by the county, and which may be decreased or increased, not beyond the limitations herein expressed, by the County Commissioners, so as to fully compensate said physician for his services; provided, however, that before the County Commissioners may, or shall, pay any fee to a physician for examining a dead body or attending any coroner's inquest, unless formally summoned before said inquest by the jury, the bill for such fee or charge shall show the fact that the said services so charged for were rendered under instructions from the State's Attorney

*Sec. 2, ch. 278, 1920, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
