

dition; and if said person shall fail or refuse for ten days after the service of such notification to obey the same, they shall impose a fine upon such person so offending of not less than one dollar and not more than five dollars, in their discretion; and in like manner an additional fine for every successive ten days' failure or refusal to obey said notification, until said grounds and premises are put in a cleanly and sanitary condition, unless said person occupying or having charge of said grounds or premises shall, in the judgment of said commissioners, be unable, from the want of adequate means, to obey said notification, in which event the commissioners shall direct the bailiff to put the same in a cleanly and sanitary condition at the expense of the town; and the said commissioners may pass all laws and ordinances necessary for grading, regulating, paving and repairing the footways in the streets, lanes and alleys of the town, and may impose a tax upon any lot fronting on any paved street, lane or alley for the purpose of grading, regulating, paving or repairing the footways in front thereof, or compel, by fine or otherwise, the owner or proprietor of any lot to pave or repair the footways in front thereof, agreeably to the ordinances to be passed by them; and they may prohibit the running or riding of any horses, or driving of carts, wagons or carriages unreasonably fast in said town; may regulate and provide for the sweeping of chimneys, prohibit the firing of guns or pistols, throwing of lighted squibs, fire-crackers, Roman candles or any other combustible matter, and the storage of gunpowder or any combustible matter within the limits of said town, and make all necessary regulations relative to wells and pumps therein.

1929, ch. 13, sec. 49A.

54. The Town Commissioners of Centreville, a municipal corporation, are hereby authorized and empowered by ordinance to regulate the showing of circuses, street shows and any other kind of performances within the corporate limits of the town of Centreville and to charge a fee for each and every performance and to issue a license for said performance upon the payment of said fee. , 1929, ch. 13, sec. 49B.

55. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section and found guilty of so doing upon trial before any Justice of the Peace in the town of Centreville shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every violation and shall be committed to the County Jail in default of the payment of said fine and costs.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 50. 1868, ch. 53.

56. No person shall keep a dog or bitch in the town without first obtaining a license from the clerk of the commissioners for that purpose in the month of April of each and every year, and paying at the time the license shall be granted, for every dog one dollar, and for every bitch two dollars; and the owner of every dog or bitch for which a license shall
