

in which they are so levied. It shall be the duty of the said Town Clerk to sit in the office of the said Town Commissioners or such other place as Town Commissioners may designate for the purpose of receiving taxes, one day before the fifth day of June and one day in each successive week until the first day of July, and at such hours upon said days and dates as Town Commissioners may designate, in each and every year; due notice of each of said sittings shall be given by advertisement as hereinbefore provided, and he shall report to the Town Commissioners, at their first meeting after each of said sittings, the amount of taxes collected by him up to the date of such report, and he shall deposit within three days after each of said sittings in the two National Banks in Centreville all taxes received or collected by him up to the date of such deposits, said deposits to be made in the name of "The Town Commissioners of Centreville"; and the money so deposited shall only be drawn out upon checks of the Town Treasurer, on warrants issued by the said Town Commissioners drawn on said Treasurer in payment of debts, demands and accounts due by said town, duly approved and passed by said Town Commissioners, and countersigned by one of the other Town Commissioners, and in making such deposits and checking thereon, same shall be done so that the average weekly balances remaining in each of said Banks, from all sources, shall be, as far as practicable, equal, and any taxpayer having a sum of money levied to his or her use, or a debt against the town, passed by said Town Commissioners, and for which they have issued their warrants as aforesaid, shall only be entitled to have same paid after he or she has paid the town taxes upon his or her property and is not indebted in any wise therefor.

1914, ch. 439, sec. 59B.

68. On the first day of August, in each year, taxes shall be deemed to be in arrears, and interest shall be charged and collected on all taxes not then paid from June 1st, the date when they became due and payable, and between the first day of August and the fifteenth day of August, the Town Clerk shall cause to be published as an advertisement in the two newspapers printed and published in said town a list of such delinquents (if there be two newspapers printed and published in said town, and if not, then in one such newspaper), together with the amount of taxes due by each, and the interest due thereon; and he shall deliver or mail to each of such delinquents between the first day of August and the fifteenth day of August in each year, an account of his or her assessment, and the taxes and interest due thereon, with a notice of warning to such delinquent thereto attached that, unless payment be made in full on or before the first day of October next, the same will be collected by process of law; and if on the said first day of October next the said taxes, interest and costs are unpaid, he shall immediately thereafter make up an additional list of all delinquents assessed with real estate, giving the name of the persons assessed, with a brief description of the property, the street, lane or alley of its location and such references to conveyances as will render the same possible of identification, together with the amount of taxes due and in
