

Five Dollars for each and every survey, plat and description so made and delivered, said sum to be fixed by the Town Clerk in each case after consideration of the work involved therein, and to be taxed as part of the costs and paid out of the proceeds of sale of such land, or by the delinquent taxpayers, if payment is made before the day of sale; and the Town Clerk shall direct the surveyor where to locate the part of said property to be sold and shall file the plat and description thereof, with his Report of Sales to the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County; provided, that if a delinquent taxpayer is assessed with more than one lot in said town, only such number of lots shall be sold as may be necessary to discharge all taxes in arrear, interest and costs, with which such taxpayer may be charged.

1914, ch. 439, sec. 59L.

78. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation, refusal to serve or neglect to qualify, or give bond, or by disqualification, or removal from the town of any Town Clerk appointed under this Act, or by removal or dismissal of said Town Clerk by the said Town Commissioners of Centreville, the said Commissioners shall appoint a person to be Town Clerk for the remainder of the official term, and the Town Clerk so appointed to fill the said vacancy or unexpired term caused by any of the aforesaid causes shall have all of the powers and authority of the Town Clerk he succeeds, and may complete the duties of said preceding Town Clerk as fully as if said Town Clerk could have done had he completed the term for which he was appointed. All books, papers and documents belonging to the office of Town Clerk are the property of said town of Centreville, and at all times subject to examination by said Town Commissioners or any of them, and the said Town Commissioners shall allow said Town Clerk all necessary expenses incident to the collection of the taxes hereinbefore provided for, including the premium on his bond required to be given, provided he shall first obtain an order therefor from said Town Commissioners.

1914, ch. 439, sec. 59M.

79. The intention of this Act is to facilitate and expedite the collection of taxes in the town of Centreville, and thereby generally to promote the business of the Town Commissioners in said town, and for that purpose all provisions of this Act shall be literally construed and all powers belonging to collectors of taxes of said town at the date of the passage of the Act of 1896, Chapter 294, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and its purposes, and so far as the same will facilitate the Town Clerk of said Town in the discharge of his duties hereunder, shall be possessed by and are hereby given to said Town Clerk, but he shall not by implication be held to possess any of the powers of such collectors as might tend to delay him in the discharge of his duties, or render the purposes of this Act more difficult; and it is hereby further provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the rights, powers or duty of the said Town Commissioners or the collector of taxes
