

direction to a point in said stream opposite to a chestnut tree standing near said stream; thence south in a straight line to the northeast corner of the Methodist Episcopal church property; thence with the line of said church property, in a southerly direction, to the property of W. W. Bowen; thence by and with the lines of W. W. Bowen's property to the northwest corner of the livery stable property of Mrs. Mary T. Gawthrop; thence by a straight line in an easterly direction to the northeast corner of the lot now owned by Wm. E. Temple, Jr.; thence in a straight line running south to the north edge of Barcus' mill pond; thence by and with the north edge of said mill pond and stream to the place of beginning.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 91. 1876, ch. 201.

137. The citizens of the town of Church Hill, qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly, and who have resided in said town for three months next preceding, shall elect by ballot, on the first Monday in June in each year, three persons, who are above the age of twenty-one years, and who have resided in the town one year preceding the election, to be commissioners of the town, and to hold their office, after being duly qualified, for one year, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

1906, ch. 330.

138. The commissioners of Church Hill, Queen Anne's county, Maryland, a body corporate, shall be paid an annual salary of twelve dollars each as compensation for services rendered as commissioners, to be paid by the treasurer of the said commissioners of Church Hill out of any money not otherwise appropriated for the use of the aforesaid corporation.

The commissioners of Church Hill are hereby prohibited from making an additional tax upon the assessable property of the corporation of Church Hill for the payment of the annual salary of twelve dollars each to the commissioners aforesaid, as provided in this section.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 92. 1876, ch. 201.

139. Said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be judges of election; and every commissioner, before proceeding to hold such election, shall make oath before a duly authorized officer of the law, that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of judge of election, and permit every person to vote at such election who is qualified and a resident within the corporate bounds of said town, and prevent any one from voting who is not a resident within the bounds of the corporation, or who is otherwise disqualified.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 93. 1876, ch. 201.

140. Every commissioner, before entering upon the discharge of his duties as such, shall make oath before some justice of the peace for the county, that he will, to the best of his abilities, discharge the duties that may devolve upon him as commissioner.