

of their intention so to do, to be published in at least two newspapers of the county, by a vote of five-sevenths of all members elected, increase said levy for county or district purposes to such an amount as they may deem proper. The vote on such increase to be by yeas and nays and to be entered upon their proceedings.

1904, ch. 124. 1914 Code, sec. 165.

219. Whenever, in their discretion, they may deem it advisable and proper, they are authorized to issue certificates of indebtedness for the payment of any and all claims against the county of whatsoever kind bearing interest at the rate of five per centum per annum from the date of the same, which shall be endorsed upon the face of such certificates, and they shall levy on the assessable property of the county liable to taxation for the payment of said interest-bearing certificates in like manner as by law such claims have heretofore been levied for without interest.

1922, ch. 80, sec. 1.

220. The Board of County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County is hereby authorized to borrow money on the credit of said county for the purpose of redeeming outstanding certificates of indebtedness that may be levied by them from time to time, and the amount borrowed at any time shall not exceed the amount of outstanding certificates of indebtedness.

1922, ch. 80, sec. 2.

221. The said Board of County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall borrow said money upon their note or notes to be signed by the President of said County Commissioners and countersigned by the clerk thereof, with the corporate seal of the said County Commissioners attached, and said note or notes are expressly declared to be a direct obligation upon Anne Arundel County.

1910, ch. 334. 1914 Code, sec. 166.

222. The County Commissioners of said county shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to sub-divide into separate taxable districts of the county which now have, or may hereafter have, special privileges not enjoyed by all districts of the county in general, such as lighting, police protection, garbage removal service, and such other privileges, for example, as are properly incident to the administration of township or municipal corporations, which privileges are now paid for by all the districts of the county through the general tax levy fund; and every such taxable district enjoying such special privileges shall bear the entire expense of maintaining the same in the respective districts; and to accomplish this purpose the County Commissioners shall keep a separate account of all expenses incurred in connection with said special privileges and annually levy upon the assessable property of each of said districts, respectively, a tax sufficient to defray said expense in each of said districts, but nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve said districts from taxes for