

Section rendered after the expiration of his term of office other than the commissions allowed for the collection of delinquent taxes under the provisions of this Act.*

1910, ch. 369, sec. 133C-12 (p. 1061). 1912, ch. 822, sec. 2.

212. Nothing in this act shall in any manner affect any of the powers belonging to collectors of taxes of said county at the date of the passage of the Act of 1898, Chapter 235, and at the date of the passage of the Act of 1910, Chapter 369, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and its purposes, and so far as the same will facilitate the county treasurer of said county in the discharge of his duties hereunder, shall be possessed by and hereby given to said county treasurer, but he shall not by implication be held to possess any of the powers of such collectors as might tend to delay him in the discharge of his duties, or render the purpose of this act more difficult; and it is hereby further provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the right, powers, or duty, of the sheriff or the county treasurer of said Queen Anne's county to make collection of all State and county taxes due and in arrear at the time of the passage of this act and it is hereby further provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect in any manner the legality of any tax sales heretofore made by any sheriff or any county treasurer of said county; and the said sheriff and the said county treasurer shall report such sales as provided by the existing law at the time of the making thereof, and the same proceeding shall be had in reference thereto in the same manner as if this act had not been enacted.†

1898, ch. 235, sec. 133D.

213. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation, refusal to serve or neglect to qualify, or give bond, or by disqualification, or removal from the county of any treasurer appointed or elected under this Act, the County Commissioners shall appoint a person to be County Treasurer for the remainder of the official term. All books, papers and documents belonging to the office of County Treasurer are the property of Queen Anne's County, and at all times subject to examination by said County Commissioners or any of them.

1898, ch. 235, sec. 133E.

214. The County Commissioners of Queen Anne's county shall prior to the first day of June, nineteen hundred, equip and furnish a suitable and safe office for the use and conduct of the business pertaining to the duties of said treasurer, and shall allow him all necessary expenses incident to the collection of the taxes hereinbefore provided for, provided he shall first obtain an order therefor from said County Commissioners.

*Sec. 2, ch. 369, 1910, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.

†Sec. 3, ch. 822, 1912. repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
