

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 193. 1884, ch. 89. 1896, ch. 348. 1900, ch. 507.
1902, ch. 13, sec. 193.

280. It shall not be lawful for any person, house, corporation, company or association to sell, directly or indirectly, at any place or to give away at his, its or their place of business, within the limits of election district number five, or Queenstown district, of Queen Anne's County, any spiritous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any origin whatever, cider or alcoholic bitters.

Cohen v. Jarrett, 42 Md. 571.

1902, ch. 13, sec. 193A.

281. Any person, house, company, association or body corporate, who shall sell, directly or indirectly at any place, or give away at his, its or their place of business any spirituous, or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, or cider within the limits of said election district number five, or Queenstown district, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay on the first conviction a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, and be imprisoned in the county jail for thirty days; and on the second and every subsequent conviction not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, and in addition to such fine, be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than sixty nor more than ninety days, in the discretion of the Court; and on failure to pay any such fine and costs as herein described, he or they shall remain in the jail of said county after the term of imprisonment until such fine and costs are paid; one-half of the fine imposed for violation of this section shall go to the informer, and the residue to the Board of School Commissioners of said county for the benefit of public schools therein.

1902, ch. 13, sec. 193B.

282. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors for medicinal purposes by a pharmacist or druggist, who shall or may obtain a license under the license laws of the State of Maryland, and upon a written bona fide prescription of a regular practicing physician, whose name shall be signed thereto; and all such prescriptions shall be filed and kept by such pharmacist or druggist and no prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, and such liquor is absolutely necessary as a medicine; any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for such liquors except as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this section, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for the first offence, and not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars for each subsequent offence; and if the buyer shall obtain a prescription by misrepresentation he shall likewise be deemed guilty of a violation of this section
