

LIVERY STABLE KEEPERS.

1904, ch. 107.

310. If any person shall hire of any livery stable keeper in Queen Anne's County any horse, mare, gelding or vehicle of any description whatever to go to any certain place, or any certain distance, and shall secretly use said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle for a greater distance, or in going to some other place with the intent to evade payment for such increased use, and shall fail or refuse to immediately pay the said livery stable keeper a reasonable compensation for the additional use of said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle, which additional compensation shall be rated in proportion to the increased distance and use; such person shall, on conviction before any justice of the peace of Queen Anne's County, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and upon failure or refusal to pay said fine and costs shall be committed by such justice of the peace to the jail of Queen Anne's County for a period not exceeding thirty days; and in case the judgment of the justice of the peace is against the accused, he shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County upon entering into recognizance with security to be approved by the justice of the peace, and in every such case the appeal shall be taken within thirty days after the date of his conviction.

1910, ch. 579 (p. 1052).

311. For the price or value of feed, shelter or accommodation furnished to any horse or other animal or vehicle of any kind, at any livery stable, boarding or hiring stable in Queen Anne's County, the proprietor or keeper of such livery stable, hiring or boarding stable shall have a lien upon the said horse or other animal or vehicle for which he has furnished the feed, shelter or accommodation in his stable, and may keep possession of the said horse or other animal or vehicle until the price or value of such feed or shelter or accommodation shall have been fully paid, and for the purpose of collecting the said debt he may sell such horse or other animal or vehicle for cash at public sale, upon giving notice of the time, place and terms of sale by hand-bills posted up in at least five public places near the said stable, and by advertisement published at least twice in at least one newspaper published in the said county wherein the said livery, boarding or hiring stable is situated, the first publication to be not less than ten days before such sale, and the proceeds of the sale to be applied after payment of expenses to the discharge of such indebtedness, if any, to be paid over to the person or persons entitled thereto.

OFFICERS' FEES.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 18, sec. 209. 1876, ch. 216.

312. All accounts for officers' fees shall be made out in a fair and clear manner, and in words at length; and whenever any person interested in them, or to whom the same are charged, shall require a copy of such
