

Queen Anne's, Dorchester, Talbot and Anne Arundel counties, in taking or catching oysters with any implements or device other than ordinary rakes or tongs with wooden shafts, to be used entirely by hand, and without any ropes or hoisting gear whatever. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to the penalties prescribed in the public general laws, article 72, title "Oysters," section 21, for taking oysters with rakes or tongs without license.

QUEENSTOWN.

1892, ch. 542, sec. 218A.

323. The citizens and inhabitants of Queenstown, Queen Anne's County, Maryland, are hereby created a body corporate under the name and style of "The Commissioners of Queenstown," with all the rights and privileges of a body corporate and as such may sue and be sued and may have and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure.

1892, ch. 542, sec. 218B. 1916, ch. 249.

324. The present bounds and limits of Queenstown shall be as follows: Beginning at the foot of Old Wharf Lane and running thence with the lines of the creek shore in a westerly direction until it intersects the divisional line between the lands of William McKenney and the land of William McConnor, thence with said divisional line extended a southeasterly course across the "Gallows Field Farm" of William Hannetta De May, until it reaches a point in a straight line northeast with the extreme southern boundary of George Shepherd's land, thence due northeast with the line of George Shepherd's property until it intersects the southwest side of the Wye Neck Public Road, thence down the southwest side of said road toward the town until it reaches a point on the southwest side of said road opposite the thorn hedge on the lower line of the farm of Hiram G. Dudley, and then across the Wye Neck Road, and following the boundary line of said farm until it reaches the public road leading to Centreville, and along said road leading to Centreville until it reaches a point opposite the south or southwest boundary of the Old Wharf Lane, and thence on the south or southwest side of said Wharf Lane to the point of beginning.

1892, ch. 542, sec. 218C.

325. All persons of twenty-one years of age and upwards, owning property in said town, or who shall have resided in said town for the period of six months previous to any election for town commissioners, being of twenty-one years of age and upwards and who shall be qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, shall be entitled to vote for town commissioners, provided, they are taxpayers on property located or held in said town, and any resident property holder and taxpayer in said town of twenty-one years and upwards, qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly as aforesaid, shall be quali-