

Sheriff of Queen Anne's County, annually, in equal monthly payments, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500.00), which said annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars is to be in lieu of all fees and charges in criminal cases to which he may be entitled by law, but said annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars shall not include the amount he is now or may hereafter be allowed by law for the board and keeping of any prisoner or prisoners confined in the county jail of Queen Anne's County, nor the annual allowance for fuel and light for the comfort and benefit of said prisoner or prisoners confined in the county jail as is now allowed by law, nor the actual car fare or steamboat fare or traveling expenses of the Sheriff himself and that of the prisoner or prisoners whom he may be required to take or carry out of the limits of Queen Anne's County or for whom he may have to go outside of the limits of Queen Anne's County for; the Sheriff shall collect all fees and charges to which he may be entitled by law in criminal cases, and exercise all powers conferred upon him by law to enforce the collection of the said fees in criminal cases, and shall at the end of the months of March, June, September and December during each year of his term of office make a sworn report of the collection of all the fees in all criminal cases to the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County in such form as said County Commissioners may direct, and pay over all of the said collected fees to the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County at the end of the said months of March, June, September and December in each and every year of his term of office, and whenever any Sheriff of said county shall retire from said office from any cause whatsoever leaving uncollected any fees and charges in any criminal case lawfully payable to him, his successor in said office shall collect and pay over the said fees to the said County Commissioners, and the Sheriff of Queen Anne's County shall be required to keep in his office such a book or books as may be required to contain an accurate and full official account and record of all the fees and charges to be collected by him, as well as those which shall have been collected and each and every one of his settlements with the said County Commissioners, and all of such books shall remain in the Sheriff's office after the expiration of his term of office or upon his vacating his said office for any reason whatsoever, for the use of his successor in said office of Sheriff. All General or Local Laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Section be and the same are hereby repealed.

1924, ch. 47.

389. The Sheriff of Queen Anne's County shall turn over to the County Commissioners of said county any and all sums of moneys, emoluments or rewards received by him as rent or lease for the use of any part of the jail of Queen Anne's County, located in Centreville, Maryland; said sums of money to go into the General Funds of Queen Anne's County, and in case of the failure of any Sheriff to pay over any such sums then and in that case the County Commissioners shall deduct such sums from the salary provided to be paid to the said Sheriff.