

FOXES.

1929, ch. 296.

78. It shall be unlawful in Saint Mary's County for any person in any manner to trap any fox or to set any trap to catch any fox. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined twenty-five dollars ($25).

1922, ch. 124.

79. It shall be unlawful in Saint Mary's County for any person to shoot any fox while it is being pursued by hounds, or to shoot or molest any hound while chasing a fox. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense.

IMMIGRATION COMMISSION.

80. An Immigration Commission for the counties of Charles, Prince George's, St. Mary's and Calvert, in Southern Maryland, is hereby created and constituted, to be composed of the President of the University of Maryland, and Joseph A. Wilmer, of Charles County; William S. Cichester, of Prince George's County; Trueman Slingsluff, of St. Mary's County, and Thomas Parran, of Calvert County, who are hereby designated as members of said Commission for the term beginning on the first day of June, in the year 1922, and ending on the first day of October, in the year 1924, or until their successors are appointed and qualified, as hereinafter provided.

In case of any vacancy occurring in the membership of said Commission, such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment, by the Governor of Maryland, of some suitable person from the same county and for the unexpired term of such member, to the end that each of the counties aforesaid shall, at all times, be represented upon said Board. And upon the expiration of the terms of all members of said Commission, and bi-ennially thereafter, the Governor of Maryland shall appoint members thereof, having due regard for the county representation hereinbefore provided.

81. The members constituting the Commission hereby created shall, before the 15th day of June, 1922, meet at some convenient place in one of the counties aforesaid, the time and place of said meeting to be designated by the President of the University of Maryland, and organize by the election of one of its members as Chairman of said Commission. Said Commission shall thereafter elect a Secretary and Treasurer thereof, who may or who may not be a member of said Commission. It shall have full power to fix the salary of said Secretary and Treasurer, who shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties as such, in the penalty of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, to be approved by, and deposited with, said Com-
