

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 19, sec. 55. 1884, ch. 510. 1927, ch. 542.

89. Constables in said counties shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them under the preceding section; and the said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in said criminal cases the fee of $2.50 for each such case tried or otherwise disposed of, in lieu of all other fees in such case or cases; and such fee shall be assessed as costs in the same manner as fees have heretofore been assessed as costs.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 19, sec. 56. 1884, ch. 510.

90. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of Section 88, shall be accounted for and wholly paid without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1902, ch. 568. 1904, ch. 461. 1906, ch. 86.

91. Whenever a justice of the peace for said county shall issue a summons for a defendant residing in a different election district from the said justice, he shall, upon the request of the defendant, filed in writing with the said justice within three days after the said summons has been served, transmit the papers in the case to some justice of the district where the defendant resides, who shall proceed to try the case without further summons for the said defendant, except in cases where there are two or more defendants, then and in this event the case shall be tried in the district for which the justice who issued the summons was appointed and qualified.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 19, sec. 57. 1876, ch. 384. 1886, ch. 182.

92. In all cases of renting land in St. Mary's, Prince George's, Charles, Calvert and Worcester counties, wherein a share of the growing crops shall be reserved as rent, or wherein advances by the landlord shall be made upon the faith of the crops to be grown, said rent reserved and such advances made shall be a lien on such crops, which shall not be diverted by any sale made thereof by the tenant or by any administrator of a deceased tenant, or by the assignment of the tenant in insolvency, or by the process of law issued against the tenant; provided, that at the time of said renting, the contract under and by which said advances are to be made, shall be reduced to writing, duly executed and attested by the said landlord and tenant.
