

1904, ch. 401, sec. 64.

99. The said Commissioners may meet and adjourn from time to time as they shall see fit, and at their first meeting after each election shall choose from their own body a president, who shall preside at their meetings, vote on all questions before them and remain in office until superseded by the appointment of a new president, or until after a new election of Commissioners. They may also appoint a clerk to their Board, who may be one of their members, also a treasurer, who may be one of their members, and one and the same person may act as clerk and treasurer. Any of the above-named officers shall be subject to removal by a vote of the majority of the whole number of Commissioners, and the Commissioners shall prescribe the duties of clerk and treasurer and fix their compensation by ordinance, when not otherwise prescribed by this Act.

1904, ch. 401, sec. 65.

100. The treasurer shall receive all moneys that may be collected for taxes, fees, fines or otherwise, by any law or ordinance directly or through the bailiff, collector or otherwise, and all such moneys shall be paid out only by order of the Commissioners. He shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful performance of his duties, and give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of at least six hundred dollars, to be approved by the Commissioners, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties and such other condition as the Commissioners may prescribe, and his books shall be open to the inspection of the Commissioners and any taxpayer; and he shall, on or before the first day of May in each and every year, render a succinct and detailed statement of his receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year.

101. All property within the corporate limits of the Commissioners of Leonardtown that is subject to taxation for county purposes in St. Mary's County shall be taxed for municipal purposes for the Commissioners of Leonardtown, and the said Commissioners at some meeting in the month of May, 1904, and every five years thereafter, or oftener, if in their judgment the interest of the town demands same, shall appoint an assessor, who, after subscribing to an oath to perform the duties imposed upon him without fear, favor, partiality or prejudice, shall proceed to value the real estate and improvements thereon, and all the property liable to assessment and taxation under the laws of the State, judgments and private securities excepted, at a fair and just marked valuation, and return the same under his hand to the Commissioners of Leonardtown on or before the first day of July next after his appointment, and if any person shall feel aggrieved at the valuation and assessment of his or her property made as hereinbefore provided, he or she may appeal to "The Commissioners of Leonardtown," who shall meet not less than five nor more than twenty days after such assessment shall have been returned to the assessor, and remain in session from day to day as long as may be necessary to hear and determine
