

drinks in said County, shall have printed on the official ballots cast or used at said election the words "For License"—"Against License" in the same manner prescribed by Section 64 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of 1924 and the ballots cast "For License" and the ballots cast "Against License" shall be carefully counted by the judges of said elections in the various polling places in said County as provided by law and the number of ballots cast "For License" and the ballots cast "Against License" shall be certified by them, and the Supervisors of Elections of said County shall, as soon as conveniently may be after receiving and canvassing all the ballots cast "For License" and "Against License" in St. Mary's County after said election proclaim the result of said election and publish such proclamation in some newspaper or newspapers published in said County and shall record in a well-bound book to be kept in their office by them and their successors, the result of the vote upon said proposition and such result may be proved in all courts and in all proceedings by such record or by the official certificate of the Supervisors of Elections.*

1914, ch. 851, sec. 3.

133. If it shall appear from the record or certificate of the Supervisors of Elections that a majority of the legal voters voting upon said proposition voted "Against License" it shall not be lawful after the first day of May, 1916, for any person or persons, house, company, association, club, body corporate or manufacturer of intoxicating liquors of any kind to barter or sell, directly or indirectly or to solicit, or to receive orders for the purchase of, at any place within the limits of St. Mary's County or to give away at his, hers, its or their place of business within the limits of said County, any spirituous, fermented or malt liquors or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, including whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, wine, ale, beer and all other fermented, malt or distilled liquors and any mixture of liquors which shall contain more than 2 per cent. by weight of alcohol and any mixture of liquors which shall contain less than 2 per cent. of alcohol, if the same shall be intoxicating, or any article, used or sold as a beverage in the composition of which whiskey, brandy, high wines or alcohol or any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be an ingredient, nor shall any license be granted for the sale of the same in said County, and if such license is issued it shall be void. Provided, that this Section shall not apply to sales made by a person under a provision of law requiring him to sell personal property.

1914, ch. 851, sec. 4.

134. It shall be unlawful for any person, house, company, manufacturer, association, club or body corporate to deposit, keep or have in his, her or its possession any spirituous, fermented or malt liquors or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, including cider, beer, schnapps, gin or any article used or sold as a beverage in the composition or com-

*The vote in August, 1915, was: "For License," 1,111, and "Against License," 1,669.