

late the erection or repairing of buildings and grant permits therefor, specifying the material of which same shall be built and purpose for which same is to be used; to direct in what part of the City wooden buildings shall be erected; to prevent and regulate storage of gunpowder, oil or other combustible matter in such quantities and in such places as they may deem proper; to prevent obstructions on the streets, lanes, alleys and highways of said city; to regulate the width of tires of all vehicles used upon the streets, lanes or alleys of said City; to license carts, wagons, carriages, and other vehicles used for transporting goods or persons for hire, burden or pleasure, and to provide and regulate the numbering of same; to regulate the speed of horses, vehicles, automobiles, cars and locomotives in the City limits; to regulate the harbor of Crisfield, the anchorage of vessels in the navigable waters of the City, the hauling in to the public wharf and other wharves. For these purposes each policeman of said City shall have all the usual rights and powers of harbor master; to regulate the erection and maintenance of proper safety appliances by railroad at street crossings; to regulate and license all pawn brokers, junk dealers, fire and slaughter sales, auction sales, street venders or peddlers of nostrums, remedies, medicines, notions or any other goods, patents, secret or pretended inventions; to regulate and license or prohibit all nine or ten-pin alleys, bowling alleys, pool rooms, billiard rooms, skating rinks, theatres, moving pictures, shows, boxing and sparring matches, wrestling matches or contests, and all shows and exhibitions of every kind; to provide for the restraining of theatrical or other public amusements within said City; to regulate the construction and maintenance of exits from places of amusements and all public buildings; to prevent gambling and games of chance, fortune telling, conjuring, palmistry and sooth-saying; to regulate the use of sidewalks and all structures in, under or above same, and to require the owner or occupant of premises to keep the sidewalks in front of same and the gutters thereof free from snow and other obstructions, and to prescribe hours for cleaning same; to regulate or prevent the throwing of sweepings, dust, ashes, offal, garbage, paper, hand-bills, dirty liquids or any other offensive or objectionable material into any street, alley or public place, or any vacant lot in said City; to regulate or prevent the use of streets, sidewalks and public places for signs, sign-posts, awnings, awning posts, poles, horse troughs, steps, railings, entrances, rocks, posting hand-bills and advertisements and display of goods, wares and merchandise; to construct at public expense or to grant franchises for and to regulate the putting in of sewers or drains on or under its streets or alleys and the charges for entering and maintaining same; to construct and maintain works and apparatus for at public expense or to grant and regulate franchises to electric light companies, power companies, gas companies, telephone companies, telegraph companies, street railway companies, water companies, sewer and drain companies, and any other which they may deem advantageous and beneficial to said City or the inhabitants thereof, and to regulate the charges therefor by the municipality or for service of such companies as now possess or may hereafter