

ting member of the bar of Anne Arundel County to act as general counsel for said board, and for the officers of registration and judges of election, appointed by them, in all matters and proceedings pertaining to their duties and to appear for and defend said Board of Supervisors, officers of registration and judges of election at the hearing of all petitions and suits which may be filed or brought for or against them under the provisions of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," or involving their rights and duties thereunder. For his services as such general counsel he shall receive an annual salary of four hundred dollars, to be paid in equal quarterly installments by the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, and he shall not receive any other compensation, emolument, pay, fee, appearance fee or recompense of any kind whatsoever.

And no attorney's fee shall be taxed as a part of the costs in any such cases. He may be removed and other counsel may be appointed in his place for the same purposes and with the same salary at the discretion of said board.

FARM LABOR.

1912, ch. 682. 1914 Code, sec. 296.

269. All employers of farm labor in Anne Arundel County who own, or are the tenants of, premises whereon are located dwelling houses occupied by their employees paid by the day, week or month, with the use of said dwelling house or houses as a part of their compensation, shall have the right to the restitution of their said dwelling house or houses or other buildings whenever any of their said employees shall for any reason leave their employ or be discharged, and the said employers shall have the right to re-enter and take possession of their said premises; provided that before doing so, said employers shall give to their said former employees three days' previous notice in writing as to their intention or desire to regain possession of said premises in cases of laborers employed by the day; and one week's notice where employed by the week; and one month's notice where employed by the month.

FENCES.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 135. 1914 Code, sec. 200.

270. All fences constructed upon or near the dividing line or lines of tracts of land belonging to different proprietors, and intended to enclose the separate farms of such proprietors, in Anne Arundel County, who have agreed or may agree to join in making the same, if made of posts and rails, shall be at least four feet high from the surface of the ground, of good material, the average distance between the lower rails not to exceed four inches; all worm division fences to be made of good and substantial rails, staked and ridged, and at least five feet high from the surface of the ground to the top of the upper rail.