LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1927, ch. 403, sec. 1.

115. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons or body corporate to manufacture, transport into Crisfield for destination therein, sell, attempt to sell or keep for sale anywhere within the corporate limits of the town of Crisfield, Somerset County, State of Maryland, intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors, except cider and home-made wine on the premises where manufactured in quantities not less than one gallon; and it shall not be lawful for any person, persons or body corporate to solicit or take orders for such intoxicating liquors, at any time, under any pretense or in any manner or for any purpose whatever within the limits of said town of Crisfield, and any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for Somerset County or before a Justice of the Peace of said Somerset County, trying the case, be fined not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars or be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months nor more than two years, or both, for each and every offense; provided that nothing in this section shall be taken to refer to wine for sacramental purposes or other religious rites nor to any physician in the bona fide treatment of patients nor to persons acting under the instruction or advice of physicians.

1927, ch. 403, sec. 2.

116. (A) If any taxpayer or voter in the town of Crisfield makes a sworn complaint or affidavit before a Justice of the Peace for said Somerset County, particularly describing the building, place, automobile or other vehicle, boat, air or water craft, in said town of Crisfield, to be searched and the thing to be searched for, that he has reason to believe and does believe that intoxicating liquor is manufactured, sold or kept for sale therein in violation of the provisions of this Act, such Justice of the Peace shall issue his warrant upon probable cause shown, directed to the Sheriff of said Somerset County, commanding him to search the building, place, automobile or other vehicle, boat, air or water craft described and designated in said complaint and warrant, and if intoxicating liquor shall there be found in quantities and under such conditions as to suggest that it be kept for sale, the said officer shall take into his possession and safely keep all of such intoxicating liquor and the container or containers in which it is contained, and all the paraphernalia used for the sale of the same, all the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a barroom or drinking saloon, and forthwith report in writing all the facts and make immediate return on said warrant.
