

(B) The warrant for search shall be directed to the proper officer and shall show by a copy of the affidavit inserted therein or annexed and referred to or recite all of the material facts alleged in the affidavit and particularly describe the thing to be searched for and the building, place, automobile or other vehicle, boat, air or water craft to be searched. A warrant for search substantially in the following form shall be sufficient: State of Maryland, Somerset County, to wit:

The State of Maryland, To....., Greetings:

Whereas there has been filed with the undersigned an affidavit of which the following is a copy (here insert affidavit); these are therefore to command you in the name of the State of Maryland, together with the necessary and proper assistance, to enter into (here describe the building, place, automobile or other vehicle, boat, air or water craft described in the affidavit) of the said.....of....., in the County aforesaid, and there diligently search for the said intoxicating liquor and paraphernalia used for the manufacture or sale of the same (here describe the article as in the affidavit), and that you bring the same or any part thereof found in such search forthwith before me to be disposed of and dealt with according to law.

Given under my hand this.....day of
.....A. D.....
....., J. P.

Such liquor and means used for the manufacture or sale or transportation of the same shall be held subject to the order of the Justice of the Peace issuing the warrant, to be used as evidence in the prosecution of any case for violation of this Act.

(C) If upon final judgment of the Justice of the Peace or Court, the accused shall be found guilty, the intoxicating liquor seized from him shall, after the time for appeal has expired, and if no appeal is taken, be ordered to be destroyed.

(D) If no one is found in the possession of the premises where intoxicating liquor may be found, the officer taking the same shall post in a conspicuous place on said premises a copy of his warrant and take possession of such liquor and paraphernalia used for the manufacture or sale of same and hold them subject to the order of the Justice of the Peace issuing the warrant, and make return of his doings therein, whereupon it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace to fix a time for hearing and determining the purpose for which such liquor is kept, and issue a notice thereof to the officer, who shall post a copy thereof on the premises whereon the liquors were found. If no one appears at the time fixed for the hearing, nor within thirty days thereafter to claim such liquor and paraphernalia used for the manufacture or sale of the same, the Justice of the Peace shall order the same destroyed.

(E) No warrant shall be issued to search a private residence occupied as such unless it or some part of it is used as a store or shop, restaurant, hotel or boarding house, or unless such residence is a place of public resort, or unless it is used for the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor.
