

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 114. 1878, chs. 256 and 445. 1884, ch. 144.
1886, chs. 268 and 418.

196. The judgment, assessment and report of the two persons hereinbefore provided for, to be appointed by the justice of the peace, shall in no case be taken and held to be conclusive and final; but either party on trial shall be at liberty and have the right to produce witnesses to maintain or controvert all matters at issue in the case; and the court, before which the case is to be determined, shall give such judgment, upon all the evidence, as may seem right and proper; and nothing in this subtitle of this article contained shall be taken or considered as giving jurisdiction to any justice of the peace to hear and determine any cause wherein the title of land is concerned.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 115. 1888, ch. 125.

197. The provisions of the seven preceding sections shall not apply to that part of Tangier district which comprises Deal's island, as the same is now surrounded by water.

FISH.

(All local Fish laws were repealed by ch. 471, 1929. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 39.)
