

any manner or for any purpose whatever within the limits of Somerset county, and any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof by the Circuit Court or a justice of the peace of Somerset county, trying the case, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100 and be confined in the Maryland house of correction for not less than six months nor more than one year for each and every offense.

See secs. 115 and 116.

1908, ch. 518, sec. 138A (p. 996).

221. The giving away of intoxicating liquor, except cider and home-made wine, on the premises where manufactured by any person at any place of business within the limits of Somerset county, or the making of any agreement within said county for the sale or delivering of any intoxicating liquor or the selling by any person of any cider or home-made wine on the premises where manufactured, if the same or any part of the same be manufactured from apples, grapes or other fruit not grown or produced on said premises, or the selling by any person of any cider or home-made wine, wheresoever manufactured on any premises in said county within one mile from the limits of any incorporated town or village therein, except as aforesaid, or any shift or device to evade any provisions of this Act, or said Section 220, shall be held to be an unlawful selling; and any person violating this section shall, upon conviction thereof by the Circuit Court, or by a justice of the peace of Somerset county trying the case, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100, and be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months, nor more than one year for each and every offense.

1908, ch. 518, sec. 138B (p. 996).

222. In all prosecutions under this Act, or said section 220, by indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind of liquor sold, nor to describe the place where sold, nor to show knowledge of the principal to convict for the acts of the agent or servant, nor to state the name of any person to whom liquor is sold; and the issuance of an internal revenue special tax stamp or receipt by the United States to any person as a wholesale or retail dealer in liquors or in malt liquors at any place within said Somerset county shall be prima facie evidence of the sale of intoxicating liquor by such person at such place or at any place of business of such person within said Somerset county where such stamp or receipt is posted, and at any time charged in any prosecution as aforesaid; provided, such time is within the life of such stamp or receipt.

1908, ch. 518, sec. 138C (p. 997).

223. (A) If any person makes a sworn complaint or affidavit before a justice of the peace for the said county, particularly describing the house or place to be searched and the things to be searched for, that he has reason to believe and does believe that intoxicating liquor is sold or kept for the purpose of being sold in violation of the provisions of this Act, or of said
