

of such justice of the peace, there shall be a right of appeal within ten days to the Circuit Court for said county in which such justice resides.

LITTLE ANNAMESSEX RIVER.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 155. 1867, ch. 295.

229. It shall not be lawful to throw or put into the navigable waters of the Little Annamessex river any stone, earth, shells, timber or other substance tending to fill up the said river or obstruct the navigation between the railroad wharf and Tangier sound; nor shall it be lawful to anchor or place any boat, vessel, timber, rafts or floats of any kind in said river between said points in the track of inward or outward bound vessels, or to hinder and delay the passage of any such vessels in or out; and any person who shall be guilty of either of the offenses above mentioned shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the justice trying the same, to be recovered with costs as other small debts before a justice of the peace of said county, in the name of the State, one-half for the use of the school fund of said county, the other half for the use of the informer; and if any boat or vessel, while anchored or placed in said river contrary to this sub-title of this article, shall be collided with and damaged by any inward or outward bound vessel, the owner thereof shall not be entitled to recover for any such loss or injury, but this sub-title of this article and the violation thereof shall be a full justification of such inward or outward bound vessel so colliding.

LIVERY STABLES—FRAUD ON.

1908, ch. 8 (p. 995).

230. If any person shall hire from any livery stable keeper in Somerset county, any horse, mare, gelding or vehicle of any description whatsoever to go to any certain place or any certain distance and shall secretly use said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle for greater distance, or in going to some other place than so hired with the intent to avoid payment for such increased use, and shall fail or refuse to immediately pay the said stable keeper a reasonable compensation for the additional use of said horse, mare, gelding or vehicle, which additional compensation shall be rated in proportion to the increased distance and use, such person, shall on conviction before any justice of the peace of Somerset county forfeit and pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, and upon failure or refusal to pay said fine and costs, shall be committed by such justice of the peace to the jail of Somerset county for a period not exceeding thirty days, and in case of conviction as aforesaid, the accused shall have a right of appeal to the Circuit Court of Somerset county upon entering into recognizance with surety to be approved by the justice of the peace, and in every such case the appeal shall be taken within thirty days after the date of his conviction.
