

1900, ch. 531, sec. 204B.

312. The president and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall have power to pass such ordinance or ordinances as they may deem proper and necessary for the granting of licenses to individuals, firms or corporations to open a room or place of business in said town for the purpose of selling goods, wares, chattels and merchandise at public auction, or by any temporary expedients at variance with the general license system of this State.

1900, ch. 531, sec. 204C.

313. The president and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall have power to pass such ordinance or ordinances as they may deem proper and necessary for the granting of licenses for sales in said town of damaged goods, wares and merchandise, or goods, wares and merchandise injured by fire or otherwise, or for slaughter or parcel, or closing-out sales, or any other sales of goods, wares and merchandise, when it is intended, implied or understood that the goods, wares and merchandise are to be offered at less than the usual market price; provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to sales made by administrators, trustees, assignees or receivers, acting under an order of a court of law or equity.

1900, ch. 531, sec. 204D.

314. The sum to be paid for any licenses under any ordinance or ordinances, passed under any of the three preceding sections, shall not exceed fifty dollars a day, and the president and Commissioners of Prince Anne shall have power to impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of any ordinance or ordinances passed under any of the three preceding sections.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 205. 1868, ch. 318. 1894, ch. 543, sec. 205. 1900, ch. 569.

315. The President and Commissioners may levy a tax for the expenses of the corporation upon the taxable property within the town limits, providing such tax shall not exceed sixty cents per one hundred dollars annually, and shall have all power of distress and sale of real and personal property given to the collector of State and county taxes for Somerset county by the Code of Public General Laws and Public Local Laws of this State for the collection of State and county taxes in said county, to be used and exercised by the President and Commissioners and the collector of taxes for said town in collecting and enforcing the payment of all taxes subject to such regulations as the President and Commissioners of said town may make in relation thereto.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 20, sec. 206. 1868, ch. 318. 1894, ch. 543, sec. 206.

316. The president and commissioners shall, before any levy be made, appoint three assessors, who under oath shall ascertain and assess the value of the property within the town limits, who shall return the same to them for record in their proceedings, which shall be the basis of taxation, and they shall have power to add to and amend the same annually
