

1894, ch. 543, sec. 210J.

330. All able-bodied male citizens residing in the corporate limits of Princess Anne, over eighteen years of age, shall be compelled to labor not less than three days, of ten hours each, in every year, on the streets of said town; provided, however, no person shall be required to labor who may furnish a substitute, or pay to the bailiff the sum of one dollar per day for each day's labor required of him, in lieu of said labor; and any person who shall fail or refuse to obey the summons of the bailiff for labor on the public streets, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon complaint made by the bailiff shall be arrested and brought before a justice of the peace in said town upon a warrant to be issued by said justice, and upon proof of such summons and a failure or refusal to obey the same, shall be fined not less than one dollar and not more than five dollars and all costs of such proceedings, and to be committed to the jail of Somerset county until such fine and costs are paid.

1894, ch. 543, sec. 210K.

331. All fines, penalties and forfeitures which may be imposed under the provisions of this act or any ordinance passed in pursuance thereof not otherwise provided for, may be recovered before a justice of the peace of Somerset county, in the name of the president and commissioners of Princess Anne town as other fines are recovered, and be applied to the benefit of said town; and the justice of the peace before whom the offender may be tried, in case of non-payment of such fines and costs, in addition to process of execution for the enforcement thereof, shall have power forthwith to commit the offender to the county jail until the payment of said fine, penalty or forfeiture so as aforesaid adjudged against him, together with all costs, unless sooner released and discharged by order of said president and commissioners.

1894, ch. 543, sec. 210L. 1900, ch. 327.

332. The County Commissioners of Somerset County shall authorize and direct the treasurer of said county to pay on the first day of January in each and every year, after the passage of this Act, to the president and Commissioners of Princess Anne the sum of eight hundred dollars, and no more, for the purpose of repairing and improving the streets and roads within the corporate limits of the town of Princess Anne.

1912, ch. 547, sec. 210M.

333. The president and commissioners shall have the power and authority to compel the filling in and abolition of any cesspool in said town, or to prevent the maintaining of such cesspool whenever the residence, or other buildings for the use of which such pool is maintained, shall be located not more than three hundred feet from a public sewer in said town, or from a sewer to which the public may have access; and may compel, by fine or otherwise, the owner of the property upon which such pool is located, to discontinue the use of, fill in and abolish any such pool so located as aforesaid.
