DOGS AND SHEEP.†

1906, ch. 492, sec. 100A.

126. That whenever any person shall sustain any loss or damage to sheep by a dog, bitch or spayed bitch, in any election district in said county, such person, his or her agent or attorney may complain to any justice of the peace in said district and if there be no justice of the peace in said district then to a justice of the peace in one of the adjoining districts, in writing, to be signed by the person making such "complaint," stating therein when, where and how such damage was done, and by whose dog or dogs, if known; whereupon the said justice of the peace so called upon shall notify the treasurer of said county of said claims, and shall at once summons two disinterested persons to at once examine into the alleged loss or damage alleged to have been sustained, and to look at the sheep killed or injured if possible; and they shall examine under oath administered in due form by said justice of the peace any witness called before them; and after making diligent inquiry in relation to such claim,

*Secs. 2 and 3 of ch. 183, 1912, provided that chs. 413, 1902, and 115, 1910, should continue in force except as repealed and re-enacted by said ch. 183.

†Secs. 126-137 probably superseded by ch. 497, 1918 (1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 56, secs. 267-273).
