160. The Mayor, by virtue of his office, shall see that the ordinances of the town are duly and faithfully executed; by and with the advice and consent of the Council, he shall appoint a town attorney, chief of police and town clerk, and such other officers as the ordinances of the town may provide; he shall annually, on the first Monday in April, report to the Council in writing the general state of the town, with an accurate account of money received and expended, which said report shall be published in one or more newspapers of said town, giving a full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements; he shall have power to remove any of the officers appointed by him for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices, and shall appoint others in their stead, subject to confirmation by the Council, as in the case of original appointments; he shall have general supervision of the town, and shall receive for his services an annual salary of three hundred dollars; he shall by and with the consent of the Council appoint three citizens of known integrity, experience and sound judgment, one of whom shall be a physician, who together with the Mayor and town attorney, shall constitute the board of health, and as such shall have all the authority within the limits of said town that is now or may be hereafter vested in the health officers of Talbot County, or in inspectors of the State Board of Health, or that may be vested in them by the charter and ordinances of said town. The members of the said board shall hold office for two years from the date of their respective appointments, and until the qualifications of their successors, and shall receive such compensation for their services as may be allowed by ordinance.

161. The Mayor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, shall annually on or before the first Monday in June, appoint a competent person to be Chief of Police, who shall hold his office until the first Monday in June following his appointment and until the qualification of his successor, unless sooner removed as authorized by law. The Chief of Police, together with such deputies or other policemen as may be appointed, shall see that all ordinances are enforced and they shall have power to arrest any person or persons for the violation of town ordinances wherein an arrest for violation is provided, and in addition thereto they shall perform such other duties as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the laws relating to said town and by the ordinances thereof, and shall have all and the same powers and functions that constables of Talbot County now have or may hereafter possess as conservators of the peace. The Chief of Police shall give bond to the State of Maryland, executed by a surety company, licensed to do business in the State of Maryland, to be approved by the Mayor in the sum of five hundred ($500) Dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as Chief of Police, and the premium of said bond, if any there be, shall be paid out of the town treasury. The Chief of Police shall report at all regular meetings
