

1906, ch. 458, sec. 97N.

210. The Mayor and Council shall have full power over the streets, lanes and alleys of Easton and may grant franchises for the use of the same upon such terms as may be beneficial to the interests of the town; they may exact license from and regulate the use thereof by persons for the sale, barter or exchange of any articles or who are engaged in hiring vehicles of any description, or with them, are engaged in transporting merchandise or other articles, or passengers from point to point, for profit, the amount of such licenses to be governed by the number and character of the vehicles used.

1906, ch. 458, sec. 97P. 1914, ch. 102.

211. The room in the town building on Harrison street shall be known and used as the Council room, provided, however, the Mayor and Council, by ordinance or resolution, may provide, designate and use any other room in the town of Easton as a City Hall and Council room.

1906, ch. 458, sec. 97Q.

212. All laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed so far as the same affect the provisions of this Act.

1906, ch. 458, sec. 97R.

213. Each person elected or appointed to any office of honor, profit or trust under the government of the town of Easton shall before assuming the duties of his office take and subscribe in a book prepared for the purpose the following oath or affirmation: I —— do swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of Maryland and support the Constitution and laws thereof, and that I will, to the best of my skill and judgment, diligently and faithfully, without partiality or prejudice, execute the office of —— according to the Constitution and laws of this State. I further swear (or affirm) that since the adoption of this charter I have not at any town election in any manner, directly or indirectly, violated the provisions of said charter and the Constitution and laws of the State of Maryland in relation to bribery of voters.

1906, ch. 458, sec. 97S.

214. The town attorney shall be the legal adviser of the Mayor and of the Council, shall prosecute and defend all suits in which the town is interested, and shall perform such other duties and receive such compensation as the Mayor and Council shall prescribe; and he shall be a member of the board of health as in this Act provided.

1906, ch. 458, sec. 97U.

215. The Mayor and Council may provide by ordinance for the extension of the boundaries of the town, but such ordinance shall not become operative unless same shall receive a majority vote of the qualified voters of the town voting at a special or general election.
