

costs; and at the time of filing said account, the said Police Justice shall pay over to the County Commissioners the amount of all fines, penalties, forfeitures and Justice's costs so received by him in cases where the fine is imposed for violation of any State Law, and also all Justice's costs imposed for violation of any ordinance of any incorporated towns in Easton District, to be appropriated by said Commissioners as hereinafter provided. And at the same time he shall, in the same manner, account to and pay over to the Mayor and Council of Easton, all fines imposed and received by him for violations of any of the ordinances of said town; all other costs received by said Police Justice, including Sheriff's, Constable's and Bailiff's costs and witness fees, shall be paid by him to the officer or person entitled thereto; and the Chief of Police and other officers of the Town of Easton shall be entitled to receive the same fees as Constables now receive for similar services in criminal cases, to be taxed as costs against and paid by the person who shall be adjudged guilty of a violation of any ordinance of the town of Easton, but no such costs accruing to said Chief of Police or other officers of said town of Easton shall be paid by or be a charge against said town of Easton, or the Commissioners of Talbot County.

And the Clerk of the County Commissioners and the Town Clerk of Easton shall notify the Governor of any failure of the Police Justice to file said account by the time prescribed in this Act, and if said Police Justice shall fail to pay over to the said Commissioners or to the said Mayor and Council of Easton all of said fines, penalties and forfeitures collected by him and belonging to each of them, respectively, at the times herein specified, or within ten days thereafter, he shall be proceeded against as a defaulter and shall be liable to the punishment prescribed in Article 27, Section 79, of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to defaulters, provided that all the provisions of this Act relating to quarterly returns to be made by the Police Justice, and all the penalties imposed upon him for failure to perform the duties imposed on him by this Act, or by any other law of this State shall be applicable to all other Justices of the Peace having criminal jurisdiction in Talbot County.

277. The fines, penalties and forfeitures of every kind, together with the justice's costs, which shall be paid over to the County Commissioners of Talbot County by said Police Justices, shall be kept by said Commissioners as a separate fund, and an account of which shall be opened and kept on the books of said Commissioners, who shall apply the same toward paying the salary of said Police Justice, and if in any year it shall be more than sufficient to pay said salary, then the balance remaining of said fund shall be applied to the payment of Constables' fees against the Commissioners for service of criminal process before the said Justice.

1914, ch. 425, sec. 117H.

278. The Justice of the Peace so selected as Police Justice may be changed from time to time by the Governor upon cause shown, and some
