

LICENSES.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127A. 1908, ch. 134, sec. 127A (p. 1023).

297. It shall be unlawful for any person who shall not have been a bona fide legal resident of Talbot county and either a registered voter at the last preceding election in said county, or legally entitled to have been so registered, to buy or barter for, within the limits of Talbot county, any rags, bones, feathers, scrap-iron, old rubber or any other article or articles, commonly called or known as junk, until he shall have first taken out a license for that purpose as hereinafter provided in this Act.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127B. 1908, ch. 134, sec. 127B (p. 1023).

298. The clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County shall issue to any person, not a bona fide resident of Talbot county as in Section 297 provided, who shall apply for the same, a license to engage in the business of buying and bartering for the articles mentioned in Section 297 of this sub-title, within the limits of Talbot county, and to maintain one fixed place of business therefor. Such license shall give the person to whom it is issued the right to send out wagons to buy or barter for the articles herein named as junk; provided, that there shall be posted on each wagon so sent out, a notice stating the name of the owner, and that he is a duly licensed junk dealer of Talbot county, and that the person in charge of the wagon is his properly authorized agent.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127C.

299. Any person to whom a license has been issued as provided in Section 298 of this subtitle shall, if he desires to have one or more additional fixed places of business in Talbot county, procure from the clerk of the Circuit Court of Talbot county a supplemental license to engage in said junk business for each additional fixed place of business that he maintains.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127D.

300. For the licenses issued under the provisions of this Act there shall be paid the following rates, to wit: For each license for a first place of business of a person, the sum of twenty-five dollars, and for each supplemental license of a licensed person, the sum of five dollars; and the clerk of the Circuit Court issuing the same shall return all fees therefrom to the County Commissioners of Talbot county after deducting from each license fee the sum of fifty cents as an issue fee to him.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127E.

301. All licenses issued under the provisions of this Act shall expire on the first day of May thereafter, and there shall be no license issued for a shorter period than one year.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127F.

302. Any person who may be found engaged in buying or bartering for any of the articles specified in Section 297 of this subtitle, or commonly
