

called and known as junk, without a license as herein provided, without being a manufacturer as provided in Section 297 of this subtitle, or without being an agent in charge of a wagon owned and operated by a licensed person, at any place within the limits of Talbot county, may be apprehended by any sheriff or constable, either upon view or information and warrant duly issued, to apprehend him and carry him before a justice of the peace of Talbot county having criminal jurisdiction.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127G.

303. If it shall appear to the justice of the peace before whom such person shall be carried after legal trial, that such person has violated any of the provisions of this Act, he shall be fined fifty dollars and costs of prosecution, to be recovered as other fines are recoverable in the State of Maryland; said fines to be paid to the County Commissioners of Talbot county.

1906, ch. 120, sec. 127H.

304. For every apprehension and conviction of any person under this Act, the sheriff, constable or other person giving the information that leads to the conviction of such person, shall be entitled to receive one-half of the fine imposed upon the convicted person.

1900, ch. 336. 1914, ch. 430.

305. The Clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County shall not issue license to any person or company of circus riders or equestrian performers to exhibit in said County, or to any person or company to exhibit any animal or animals or natural or artificial curiosities of any kind (except models of useful inventions), during the time intervening between the first day of August and the fifteenth day of September in any year for a less sum than one thousand dollars.

306. Every company of circus riders or equestrian performers or exhibitors of any animal, animals or natural or artificial curiosities, other than models of useful invention, who shall perform or exhibit in said county during the time intervening between the first day of August and the fifteenth day of September in any year, without first having obtained such license, shall forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars, to be collected by the sheriff by distress and sale of the property of such delinquent; provided that nothing in this Act shall apply to any agricultural fair association duly incorporated under the laws of this State, nor to any person or persons, association or organized company to whom said Agricultural Fair Association shall grant the privilege to perform or exhibit on the grounds of said Fair Association during any of its annual exhibitions.
