

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 152. 1876, ch. 170.

348. The collector shall assess and value any assessable property that he may find within the limits of the town unassessed by the assessor, at its worth in ready money, and collect the amount of taxes thereon as if the same were inserted in the assessment list aforesaid, and shall account for the same as directed in the preceding section.

349. No person shall keep, own or harbor a dog or bitch in said town without first obtaining a license from the clerk to the commissioners for that purpose, in the month of June in each and every year, and paying at the time of obtaining such license one dollar for a license to keep, own or harbor a dog, and three dollars for a license to keep, own or harbor a bitch; the keeper, owner or harbinger of every dog or bitch for which a license shall be obtained shall have a collar placed around the neck of said dog or bitch, on which collar shall be placed a number corresponding to the number of the license; every dog or bitch found going at large in said town without such collar and number shall be shot or otherwise destroyed by the bailiff of said town; and if any person shall bring a dog or bitch into said town after the month of June in any year, he shall obtain a license for said dog or bitch within ten days thereafter, and shall pay for the same as hereinbefore directed, and place a collar, with a number, around the neck of said dog or bitch, otherwise the said dog or bitch shall be shot or otherwise destroyed; provided, that if any dog or bitch being once in any year licensed as aforesaid should lose the number, the owner, keeper or harbinger of said dog or bitch shall, within ten days after being notified by the bailiff, of such loss, obtain a duplicate number from the clerk to the commissioners; said number to be furnished the keeper, owner or harbinger at cost; any person failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 154. 1884, ch. 88.

350. Any justice of the peace residing in said town, or, in the absence of such justice, any justice of the peace of election district number three, in Talbot county, upon complaint made before him of the violation of any law, by-law or ordinance of said corporation, shall issue process, in the name of the commissioners of Oxford, to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such law, by-law or ordinance, against the party offending, and may hear and determine the matter as in any case arising under the laws of the State, and shall receive the same fees therefor; the justice shall, in default of the payment of any fine or penalty imposed by him for a violation of any law, by-law or ordinance of the said corporation, commit the party fined to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days; and the sheriff of Talbot county shall receive and confine the party so committed in the same manner as other persons, and shall be entitled to the same compensation therefor, to be paid by the county commissioners.
