

peace and twenty constables to be appointed from and allotted to the several election districts as follows, to wit: From the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Eighth Districts, respectively, five justices of the peace, and three constables; and from the Sixth Election District, two justices of the peace and one constable.

Claude v. Wayson, 118 Md. 479.

1892, ch. 334. 1914 Code, sec. 253.

344. The justice of the peace appointed for the Sixth District of Anne Arundel County before qualifying, as such, shall give bond to the State of Maryland in a penalty of two thousand dollars with a surety, or sureties, to be approved by the County Commissioners, conditioned that he will well and faithfully execute the duties and obligations of the office of justice of the peace and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for, or on account of criminal offences tried before him under the provisions of the Code of Public General and Public Local Laws, and that he will account for and pay over to the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or account of criminal offenses tried before him for violations of the Code of the City of Annapolis, and that he will well and faithfully account for and pay over to the persons and corporations entitled to the same, all moneys coming into his hands on account of collections of small debts placed in his hands for collection or on judgments recovered in civil actions. And the bond of the said justices shall be liable at the suit of the State of Maryland for the use of the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County and of the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis of any person or corporation entitled in any default of said condition.

1892, ch. 334. 1894, ch. 372. 1914 Code, sec. 254. 1922, ch. 497.

345. The County Commissioners for Anne Arundel County shall provide an office for one of the justices of the peace of the Sixth District of said county, at the Court House, and the Mayor, Counselor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, shall provide an office for the other justice of the peace of said district, at the Assembly Rooms or City Hall, and the said justices shall attend at their respective offices in the city of Annapolis, each day (Sundays and legal holidays excepted) at least from the hour of nine o'clock A. M., until the hour of three o'clock P. M., and when notified by the State's Attorney of Anne Arundel County, or any officer of the peace of said county, or by any police officer of the City of Annapolis, of any criminal matter requiring prompt attention, the said justices of the peace shall attend at their respective offices at such other hours on every day or at night (Sunday and legal holidays included) as the public interests may require; and neither of the said justices of the peace shall absent himself from Annapolis without having first arranged