

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 173. 1884, ch. 465.

421. It shall not be lawful for any person to place and keep any portable steam saw-mill within a distance of seventy-five yards of any of the public roads of Talbot County; any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, one-half of which, when collected, shall go to the informer, and the other half to the county commissioners, for the benefit of the school fund of said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 174. 1888, ch. 448.

422. The county commissioners are authorized to condemn the land lying on the south side of the public road from Easton to Easton Point, beginning with west side of Washington street in said town of Easton, and ending with the west boundary of I. Edward Beckwith's property, at Easton Point, for the purpose of widening the public road between those two points, notwithstanding the same may embrace buildings, yards and gardens; and the same proceedings now required by law to be had by said commissioners for opening and altering public roads in said county shall be followed in condemning the land aforesaid.

423. The County Commissioners of Talbot County are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to build a road, or drive-way, from the town of Oxford to Vancouver's Island in said county.

1890, ch. 482.

424. All roads opened under the provisions of this act in Talbot county shall be of such width as may be determined upon by the commissioners appointed for that purpose at the time such road is laid out, and when opened and sufficiently cleaned shall be a public road, and a statement declaring such road a public highway shall be published by the clerk of the county commissioners in one or more newspapers published in Talbot county.*
