

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 193. 1880, ch. 105.

462. It shall not be lawful for any persons at any hour of the day or night to indulge in boisterous talking or hallooing, or in the expression of vulgar and profane language, to expose themselves in a drunken or indecent condition, or to assemble in tumultuous or disorderly crowds in any of the public thoroughfares of said town, or otherwise disturb the peace and good order of the said town; every person violating any of the provisions of this section, on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace, shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than two dollars or more than ten dollars and costs, and in default of the payment of said fine and costs, shall be committed to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 194. 1880, ch. 105.

463. All ordinances enacted by the said commissioners shall be immediately made public, either through some newspaper printed in St. Michaels, or by printed handbills posted in not less than five conspicuous places in said town.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 195. 1880, ch. 105.

464. All fines collected under this sub-title of this article shall be paid to said commissioners by the justice imposing the same, for the use of said town.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 196. 1882, ch. 455.

465. The bailiff is authorized and empowered to act as a conservator of the peace in any part of said county, to execute all criminal process in any part of said county, which may be directed to him by any justice of the peace or other officer of said county authorized to issue such process; and for such service shall receive such fees as the constables of the county now receive in such cases, payable by the county commissioners.

1908, ch. 239, sec. 196A (p. 1028).

466. The Commissioners of St. Michaels shall have full power over the streets, lanes and alleys of St. Michaels, and may grant franchises for the use of the same upon such terms as may be beneficial to the interests of the town.*

1908, ch. 139, sec. 196C (p. 1028).

467. The Commissioners of St. Michaels shall, in the year 1908, and thereafter whenever they think the public interest requires it, cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within the corporate limits of said town subject to assessment of State and county taxes, and they may prescribe the manner in which such assessment shall be made, and provide for the adjustment of all differences in relation to such

*Sec. 196B, as enacted by ch. 239, 1908 (as amended by ch. 47, 1918, ch. 141, 1920, and ch. 134, 1922), authorized $20,000 of bonds for street improvements.