

within the limits of the First Precinct of the Second District, and the said police justice for the said First Precinct of the said Second District shall have cognizance of all criminal offenses committed in the said First Precinct and of all others which may be brought before him; and in the event of a warrant being sworn out before any other justice of the peace for any offense committed in said First Precinct of the said Second District, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace before whom such a warrant is sworn out to make the same returnable before the said police justice or one of the justices of the peace of the City of Annapolis, for hearing and trial.

Queen v. State, 116 Md. 678.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 172D. 1914 Code, sec. 263.

350. Whenever any person shall be arrested in said first precinct of the said Second District upon any criminal charge or for violation of any law of this State, whether such arrest is made without a writ or is made under a warrant issued by any justice of the peace of the said Second District, it shall be the duty of such officer making such arrest, or in whose custody the person so arrested may be, to take the person so arrested before the said police justice or one of the justices of the peace of the City of Annapolis for hearing or trial.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 173. 1892, ch. 334. 1914 Code, sec. 264.

351. No justice of the peace or constable appointed for any other district of said county shall have or exercise any civil or criminal jurisdiction or function of any kind in said City of Annapolis, nor shall they have any jurisdiction over the citizens of Annapolis by issuing or serving process in any civil action against any citizen or corporation of said city nor have any criminal jurisdiction of offences or violations of law committed in said city either by issuing warrants of arrest or serving process of any kind.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 174. 1914 Code, sec. 265.

352. The justices of the peace in and for Anne Arundel, Dorchester, Kent, Caroline, Calvert, Carroll, Queen Anne's, Prince George's, Harford, Charles and Worcester Counties, shall have jurisdiction over and may take cognizance of all actions of assault and battery in which the damages claimed do not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars; and also criminal jurisdiction in all cases of assault and battery committed in said counties, unless it shall appear to the said justices of the peace, upon the hearing of the case, that the said assault and battery was committed with intent to kill.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 175. 1914 Code, sec. 266.

353. In all such cases before the justices of the peace in and for the counties above named, either party shall be allowed an appeal to the Circuit Court for the county in which the offence was committed, where